Bermuda | Celebrity Summit | July 27–August 3, 2014

Spike Mendelsohn first competed on Top Chef: Chicago Season 4, where he was sent home just shy of the finale and came back to compete on Top Chef All-Stars Season 8. Growing up in St. Petersburg, FL and Montreal, Canada, where his parents operated a restaurant, Spike knew he wanted a career in the culinary world and attended the Culinary Institute of America. He went on to train in classic French cuisine in worldwide restaurants including Gerard Boyer at Les Crayeres, Thomas Keller at Bouchon, and The Maccioni Family at Le Cirque. In 2008, he was integral in opening the family's popular Capitol Hill award-winning burger joint, Good Stuff Eatery, which has been frequented by the First Family. In the summer of 2010, they opened another Capitol Hill restaurant, We, The Pizza.
